First Peoples Resource Collection

Bundle Contents

- Medicine Wheel felt template
- Inukshuk
- Métis Sash
- Spoons
- Arrowhead / flint
- Talking Feather (Non-eagle feather. Used for sharing circles)
- Talking Stones
- Miniature Moccasin
- Dream Catcher
- Birch Bark Canoe
- Piece of hide
- Pouch

These items allow students to see various First Nation, Métis and Inuit items and to learn about them.

At our school, the Bundle of First Peoples Resources will be kept in a safe and visible place at the Principal's discretion. The items are meant to be shared and used in the classrooms.

The books can be kept in the library for teacher sign out and/or where teachers can sign out for classroom use.

Inviting cultural teachers and elders into the classroom to teach about the traditional and/or cultural purpose of these items will provide a more in depth understanding First Nation, Métis and Inuit perspectives. For more information regarding the invitation of an Elder or Senator to your school, please see your Elder/Senator Protocol booklet.
