

Urban Aboriginal Pilot
Project
Grade 3 Survey
Fall 2009

This is a survey that asks you about the Urban Aboriginal Education Pilot Project that is at your school.

You don't have to complete this survey, but we hope you will. We need your help.

If there are some questions you don't want to answer, you don't have to.

1. Put a checkmark to let us know if you are in grade 3

I am in grade 3

I am not in grade 3

If you are not in grade 3, tell an adult, we'll get you another survey.

2. If you want to, let us know your ancestry by putting one checkmark below

I don't want to answer this

I am Non-Aboriginal

I am First Nation

I am Métis

I am Inuit

Something else _____

I don't know

3. When we say ‘welcome’, we mean a feeling of being comfortable or a feeling like you belong and that what you say matters. How welcome do you usually feel when you come to school?

- Very welcome
- Pretty welcome
- Not welcome at all
- I don’t know

4. What would make you feel more welcome?

5. When we say ‘valued’, we mean a feeling that your opinions and beliefs are just as important as anyone else’s. How ‘valued’ do you usually feel at your school?

- Very valued
- Pretty valued
- Not very valued
- Not at all valued
- I don’t know

6. If there were something that would make you feel more valued, what is it?

Try this!

7. We want you to colour this thermometer, BUT we only want you to fill it up to the point that is true for YOU. Colour the thermometer, from the bottom up, to a line that matches how you feel about school. So, if you don't like school at all, only fill to the bottom line. If you feel so-so about school, fill the colour to the middle line. If you really love school, fill the whole thermometer with colour!

Really love school!

So-So

Don't like school!

8. Now, think about each question on the right of the page and fill these thermometers to a spot that shows how you feel about that question. Look at the words beside the thermometer to show you where to fill it to. You fill to any of the lines, or you can fill it right up, or not at all, whatever is the right answer for you.

How much do you know about Aboriginal peoples?

I know a lot

I know a little

I don't really know anything about Aboriginal peoples

Do you think that it's a good idea to learn more about Aboriginal peoples?

It's a great idea!
