

CODE Statement on Obligations of Directors Under the Ontario Human Rights Code

The Council of Ontario Directors of Education (CODE) endorses and fully commits to advancing the human rights of students and staff within all boards and publicly funded schools as set out in the Ontario Human Rights Code. The Council of Ontario Directors of Education supports the recent statement by the Ontario Human Rights Commission, with Directors and senior staff continuing to perform this work without fear of reprisal, discrimination and/or harassment